I am a Service User, of this I am so proud,
It makes me feel like every day I'd like to shout out loud.

I would like to spend some time to say,
That when I came the other day,
It did me so much good,
Of course, before I came, I knew it really would.

I do enjoy helping everyone out,
Of this, I'm sure, I have no doubt.
To share with you, a little of me,
Is just how I imagined it to be.

You then let me know if you understand,
How good it feels to lend a hand.

Some Social Workers are wonderfully 'RARE'
Whereas others possess not an ounce of care.
From those I've met,
I always seem to get,
Some friendly, encouraging aid.
They check I'm O.K.
Talk directly to me,
And ask if some progress I've made?

Don't shut your office door,
But try to see and use me more,
I like to feel wanted, you see.

Even though I am not clever,
I'll help out when and wherever:
